LA TIERRA DE LOS INCAS

CIRCUITOS ESPECIALES > PAT1000

In Tumbes, there is an eternal summer, and it has beautiful beaches with magical views. Its proximity with the equatorial line define the landscape and vegetation. Its history goes back back to centuries; when at the pre-Hispanic time settled down the Tumpis, whose members have been considered the greatest navigators of the Peruvian coast. They emphasized in the carving of valvas of mollusks of the specie "Spondyllus Pictorum", leg of donkey (Concholapas Peruviana) and other mollusks. Their lukewarm water beaches, white sand in the middle of paradisiac landscapes are ideal for the practice of surfing, the leisure, the summering, the underwater fishing and other nautical sports.

To the north of the city is Puerto Pizarro, main enter the National Sanctuary of the Manglares, formation natural of extensive aquatic forests that create a wonderful atmosphere between the river and the sea. There are also tours to the Love and Whale's Bone islands or where also will be able to taste delicious plates with fish and seafood.
