PAT ICA 23 ENGRAVED STONES OF DR. CABRERA MUSEUM

Collector Dr Javier Goatherd D. presents a mysterious stone collection recorded with scenes of human activities next to Dinosaurios. From these researches, the student proposes that Ica was the seat of the oldest culture of Peru.

The Stones of Ica constitute an inexhaustible source of knowledge but nowadays they continue generating great controversy, by its detractors every time Dr Goatherd maintains the existence of a humanity that knew to control and annuls the force of the gravity which allowed them to travel at great speeds without expenses of fuel. In order to understand it and manages that technology suggests changing its mental schemes.
